Commissioner Agenda

Comm. Granholm –Reported that he attended the May and June YARP meetings. A new generator was installed at the Police building. On June 7, 2017, Officer Keith Dyke retired from YARP. Keith will continue to be the chaplain for the department. They are continuing negotiations with the Police Association. York County Quick Response Team is looking for donations.

Met with senior staff on how to improve recreation as identified by the Recreation Comprehensive Plan. Staff and I walked Markey Park. I asked Neil Beach to provide a proposal to do a scoping study at Markey Park for what could be developed. I met with the Recreation Board to discuss the scoping project and got an ok to expend Recreation Fund monies for the study.

On motion of Comm. Granholm, seconded by Comm. Knepper, the Board approved a contract with JMT to expend between $4000 and $8000 to provide scoping services for Markey Park.

A discussion was had.
